

IN RECOGNITION of “MANAGEMENT WEEK”

WHEREAS, responsible and resourceful management practices are key ingredients in the successful operation of the City of Augusta's government, businesses and industry; and

WHEREAS, the National Management Association, with over 34,000 members nationwide, advocates sound management practices and is devoted to the success of our free enterprise system through the important contribution of its members' talents and energies to ensure the smooth operation of government and business; and

WHEREAS, the National Management Association is the largest non profit management organization in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the National Management Association is once again sponsoring the annual Management Week in America, highlighting its objectives to develop and recognize management as a profession and promote our American Competitive Enterprise System.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bob Young, Mayor of the City of Augusta, proclaim June 1st – 7th, 2003, as “MANAGEMENT WEEK” in Augusta, Georgia and urge all our citizens to recognize the management profession and give their full support to this observance.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Augusta, Georgia, to be affixed this 16th day of May 2003.
